

Special Call for Studies Focusing on Social Science Dimensions of Covid-19 Coronavirus Pandemic

Guidelines

1. Introduction

1.1 The current global pandemic Corona Virus Disease (COVID-19) outbreak has posed a very serious challenge to the entire world, including India. The research based evidence on social science or inter-disciplinary dimensions could enrich the understanding of policy makers to take a more a more informed decision and respond efficiently to such situations. Considering this, Indian Council of Social Science Research has decided to come out with "Special call for Studies Focusing on Social Science Dimensions of Covid-19 Coronavirus Pandemic". ICSSR intends to support high quality studies on the mentioned broad theme.

These studies will be for a short duration of three to twelve months. The scholars may constitute a research team comprising of Project Director and Co-Project Director(s).

2. Eligibility

2.1 ICSSR Research Institutes/institutes of national importance as defined by the HRD Ministry/ UGC recognized Indian universities / deemed universities under 12 B etc. are eligible to apply. However, other registered organisations with established research and academic standing may collaborate with any of the above mentioned institutions for implementation of the study and may form a joint team consisting of Project Director, Co-Director/s etc. Such collaborations have to be clearly stated in application itself.

2.2 Project Director should be an Associate Professor and above. Both the Project Director and Co- Director must possess a Ph.D. degree and a proven track record of high quality research as evidenced by past studies, publications and their academic background. The condition of Ph.D. for a Co-Director can be relaxed if he/she has very credible research publications.

2.3 Civil servants, officers from Defence services and medical professionals with social science perspective having not less than 20 years of regular service and demonstrable research experience through publications of books/research papers/reports/ policy documents etc. may also apply, preferably in collaboration with a faculty in a social science discipline from institutions given in 2.1 above.

2.4 Young scholars with some innovative and high quality proposal may also apply for grant. ICSSR's Monitoring & Advisory Committee may guide the selected proposals.

3. How to Apply

3.1 The applications will be invited through an advertisement on ICSSR website.

3.2 Soft copy of the dully filled application has to be sent before the deadline to the email id icssr.specialcall@gmail.com.

3.3 Hard copy of the proposal with requisite documents and forwarding letter of the affiliating Institute/ University/ College etc. will be required after short-listing of the proposal.

3.3. The Applicants are required to submit as per pro-forma

3.4. Research proposals and final reports should either be in English or Hindi.

The applicants are advised to keep the detailed proposal of 5000 words ready soon after the deadline.

4. Procedure of Awards

4.1 Applications are scrutinised by the ICSSR Secretariat/and or by a Screening Committee for eligibility.

4.2 Expert Committee(s) short-list the good proposals for submission of detailed proposal of 5000 words.

4.3 Detailed proposals are subsequently evaluated by Expert Committee(s) before or during presentation and interaction at ICSSR. The expert committee/s make recommendation for award of studies and also suggest budget for the recommended studies.

5. Duration and Value

5.1 These studies will be for a short duration of three to nine months and in exceptional cases one year. No time extension will be permitted.

5.2 The budget for a study will depend on the need of the study in the assessment of ICSSR Experts. The amount will be disbursed in number of instalments, depending on the phases and duration of the study, as indicated in the Sanction Letter. However, in exceptional cases higher budget may be considered depending upon the relevance of the study and its budgetary requirements.

5.3 The budget estimates for these proposals are to be prepared on the basis of the format given in the guidelines. The Institute/group of scholars will propose the budget subject to the following broad expenditure sub-heads:

8.11 No request for additional grant in excess of the sanctioned budget will be considered.

8.12 The Project Director shall be personally responsible for timely completion of the Project.

8.13 The Project proposal/final report cannot be submitted for the award of any University degree/diploma or funding by any Institution by any member of the project staff, including the project director. The ICSSR however, will have no objection if any member of the project staff utilizes the project data for this purpose.

8.14 Purchase of equipment/ assets for the research Project is permissible only if it is originally proposed and approved by the ICSSR and does not exceed the permissible amount and follows the rules of the affiliating institution.

8.15 The project director shall report to the ICSSR in case he /she makes any changes in the research design at any stage. No major change can be made therein without the prior approval of the ICSSR.

8.16 No project can be transferred to any other faculty. Transfer can only be considered on the request of affiliating institution in case of some mishap.

In case of superannuation of Project Director and if the rules of the institution so require the transfer of the project to a serving faculty member may be done with prior approval of the ICSSR. The credit of Project shall belong to the original submitting Project Director.

8.17 The Council reserves the right to reject any application without assigning any reason. It will not be responsible for any postal delays/loss.

8.18 Incomplete applications in any respect will not be considered.

8.19 The final authority related to the interpretation of the guidelines or any issue left is vested with the ICSSR.

8.20 No queries will be entertained by the ICSSR Secretariat until the final declaration of results against a call. Any lobbying for award will lead to disqualification.

9. Completion of the Study

9.1 On completion of the study, the scholar should submit the following:

- (A) A Book-length final Report in a publishable form along with an Executive Summary of the report (5000 words). Both documents should be submitted in hard copies (three copies of final report and three copies of summary) and a soft copy (in pen drive).
- (B) Copies of research papers/reports, etc. on the theme of research, published in reputed research journals during the period of study.

9.2 The scholar should acknowledge support of ICSSR that the project has been sponsored by the ICSSR, in all publications resulting from the project output (Research Paper, Books, Articles, Reports, etc.) and should submit a copy of the same to the ICSSR during the course of the study or even after its completion.

10. Obligations of the Affiliating Institution

10.1 The affiliating institution is required to give an undertaking in the prescribed format contained in the Application Form to administer and manage the ICSSR grant. It is required to open a dedicated account for fund transfer under PFMS.

10.2 It is also required to provide the requisite research infrastructure to the scholar and maintain proper accounts.

10.3 The affiliating institution will be under obligation to ensure submission of the final report and an Audited Statement of Accounts and Utilization Certificate, (in the prescribed Proforma GFR 12-A) duly certified by the Competent authority of the institution.

10.4 The affiliating institution shall make suitable arrangements for preservation of data such as filled in schedules, tabulation sheets, manuscripts, reports, etc. relating to the study. The ICSSR reserves the right to demand raw data, or such parts of the study as it deems fit.

10.5 The overhead charges shall be paid only after the completion of the project and on receipt of the final audited Statement of Accounts.
