Provided, however, that no immovable property of the Council shall be sold without the prior approval of the Government of India.

27. Delegation of powers by the Council:

The Council may delegate to the Chairperson, any of its committees, or members and to the Member Secretary or to any other officer of the Council to any person who may be given an assignment on behalf of the Council such administrative and financial powers as it may deem proper and also prescribe limitations within which these powers are to be exercised or discharged.

28. Amendment of Rules:

Subject to the approval of the Government of India and the provisions of the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (Act XXI of 1860), these Rules may be amended at any time by a resolution passed at an ordinary general meeting of the Council duly convened for the purpose and supported by not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of the Council, present and voting.

29. General Provisions:

The Council shall be subject to all the provisions of the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (Act XXI of 1860) as amended by the Punjab Act of 1957 and as applied to the Union Territory of Delhi.
